

Hello All,

Happy Thanksgiving! I'm looking forward to time with family: I will have all five of my boys together for a few days, yay!

The photo opposite is a motivation to visit New York's Macy's Thanksgiving Parade, if you want to jostle the crowds. I went once, and my photos were not nearly as good as this one, taken in 1931.

1930s

At the 1931 Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade, a massive dragon balloon floats down the jam-packed street.

Club Dues

If you haven't already, please pay dues at tomorrow's meeting.

Dues cost $50 as we must now pay to rent the Patton Township meeting room. Dues cover all regular club meetings and some extras, too. We are still a great deal! If this is a hardship, please talk to me.

You can pay dues at the meeting in cash or check, or online via Paypal. More information at <https://www.statecollegephotoclub.org/become-a-member/>
